Presentation of the Presses de l'EHESP

As a publisher, specialized in the fields of public health and social action, we currently offer over 300 titles. Nearly 40 new titles are published each year.

We are affiliated with the French School of Public Health (EHESP), and our target audience consists of professionals, students and researchers.

Our catalogue and website offer a selection of our works, organized into 4 themes and nearly 20 collections, some of which are intended for the general public.

Our flagship topics are:

- ▶ Healthcare management, which includes tools to learn about and understand management methods and keep up with developments in human resources management and budgetary and financial analysis;
- ▶ Public health, oriented towards the general public or specialists, for whom our books discuss health promotion, healthcare issues related to the environment, epidemiological case studies, health safety and safe medical practices;
- ▶ Social and healthcare policies, with publications that inform readers on topics covered by specific policies, such as poverty, alcohol and parenting, as well as on the design, implementation and assessment of public policies, codes of conduct and ethics, care circuits and democracy in healthcare;
- ▶ Social action, through research publications and professional expertise, practical guides and books for the general public, on handicaps, aging, integration, social work and social and healthcare professions.

Our books are intended to present and describe new developments in the field and provide all of the tools required for our target audience's day-to-day needs.

PUBLIC HEALTH, SOCIAL AND HEALTHCARE POLICIES

To reflect upon healthcare promotion, public policies, the environment and health safety
 ► Books for all: the general public, the university community and professionals

Faire de la santé publique
 (2nd edition)

Didier Fassin

What is public health? Many answers have been given to this question, in terms of definitions or requirements. Rather than adding an additional work to this catalogue of norms and defining what public health should be, Didier Fassin offers an analytic reading by asking: "What does it mean to work in public health?"

2008 • 10,5 x 17 • 80 p. • General public • Essay

La promotion de la santé

Éric Breton, Françoise Jabot, Jeanine Pommier, William Sherlaw (dir.)

The first manual to present the many approaches used in health promotion: definitions, theories, and key tools for the implementation and assessment of projects.

Structured as a series of specific courses, it is designed and structured according to key health promotion skills, based on the vast experience of international researchers and professionals, to improve the understanding of practices and enhance the existing and emerging tools.

2017 • 17 x 25 • 544 p. • Professionals • Reference

La santé publique en question(s)

Laurent Chambaud

Illustrated by Loïc Schwartz

In ten questions, Laurent Chambaud clearly presents the key issues of public health, which affect both the private sphere and the values underlying our ability to live together (the healthcare system, prevention, "health democracy", etc.). A fascinating introduction to public health through the offbeat yet perceptive eyes of the illustrator Loïc Schwartz.

2016 • 11 x 17 • 128 p. • General public • Essay

Savez-vous goûter... les légumes secs ?

Bruno Couderc, Gilles Daveau, Dr Danièle Mischlich, Caroline Rio

Preface by Florent Quellier, Color photography by Kim Jonker

70 easy-to-make gourmet recipes, supplemented by cooking advice from great chefs, quizzes, and creative ideas. A colorful coffee-table book that showcases pulses and their gustatory, nutritional and economic qualities, which are too often neglected. A treat for the eyes and taste buds!

2014 • 21 x 24 • 128 p. • General public • Coffee-table book

Savez-vous goûter... les tubercules ?

Dr Danièle Mischlich

Color photography by Kim Jonker

2017 • 21 x 24 • 144 p.
 • General public • Coffee-table book

Alimentation et Alzheimer

Caroline Rio, Céline Jeannier, Héléne Lejeune

Illustrated book
 2011 • 18,5 x 26 • 160 p.

Amours de vieillesse

Marick Fèvre, Nicolas Riguidel (dir.)

2014 • 12 x 17 • 212 p.
 • Professionals • Practical

HEALTHCARE MANAGEMENT IN HOSPITALS AND OTHER HEALTHCARE FACILITIES

For the discovery and understanding of the management methods and issues related to working in a healthcare facility ► Books for professionals

Classification française des troubles mentaux de l'enfant et de l'adolescent (5th edition)

Roger Misès (dir.)

This classification takes into account aspects inherent to childhood and adolescence that are absent or little-discussed in international generalist classifications (DSM, ICD). Approved by the French Psychiatric Association, it takes a clinical approach which considers the various streams of research that form a part of child and adolescent psychiatry. This revised edition contains a table of correspondence with ICD-10.

2012 • 15 x 21 • 128 p. • Professionals • Technical

Architecture pour la psychiatrie de demain

Yann Bubien (dir.),
Cécile Jaglin-Grimprez (dir.)

Illustrated book

Can architecture help reconcile psychiatric care and reinsertion, meet patients' needs and address their rights? Doctors, architects, heads of facilities and sociologists analyze the evolution of psychiatric establishments, describe notable developments and envision the future of care and treatment facilities.

2017 • 24 x 18 • 192 p. • Professionals • Practical

Classification française des troubles mentaux R-2015

Correspondance et transcodage ► CIM 10

Jean Garrabé,
François Kammerer (dir.)

This new Classification française des troubles mentaux (CFTM R-2015) extends the CFTM for children and adolescents by adding an "adult" section. Taking dimensional and categorical benchmarks into account, it contains a transcoding with ICD-10 and comes with an electronic version for professional use.

2015 • 15 x 21 • 256 p. • Professionals • Technical

Le bien-être au travail

Olivier Bachelard (dir.)

The question of workplace well-being is key to allow professionals to find pleasure and meaning in their duties. With the help of case studies, researchers and practitioners from all the civil service branches deconstruct these notions for benevolent public service.

2017 • 14 x 20,5 • 204 p. • Professionals • Research

Stratégies et management: Briser l'omerta!

Jean-Louis Deshaies

2014 • 16 x 24 • 288 p.
• Motivated public • Expertise

Daniel Brandého (dir.)

2017 • 14 x 21 • 330 p.
• Professionals • Practical

SOCIAL ACTION

To reflect upon social intervention, handicaps, insertion and the social and healthcare professions ➤ Research works, professional expertise and books for the general public

L'intervention sociale d'intérêt collectif
(2nd edition)

Cristina De Robertis, Marcelle Orsoni, Henri Pascal, Micheline Romagnan

At the heart of training for social workers since 2004, this method provides the theoretical and technical elements used to develop all aspects of ISIC (Social action for communities): historical basis, ethical issues, strategies, methodology. Three experiments are presented in detail and analyzed. This 2nd edition includes new developments related to reforms that have affected the social and medico-social fields.

2014 • 16 x 24 • 304 p. • Professionals • Educational

Pas si fou
Quand un village accueille le handicap psychique

Lætitia Delhon (entretien avec Alain-Paul Perrou)

Including an 8-page section of colored pictures

In the fragmented landscape of the treatment of the mentally handicapped, the ESAT (Providing care through employment center) of Mézin, in Lot-et-Garonne, is a welcome exception: the insertion of people with mental handicaps has breathed new life into the village. Alain-Paul Perrou recounts the success of this project, with the "crazy" yet entirely sensible goal of making the economy work for people.

2016 • 12 x 17 • 160 p. • General public • Document

Pour une approche interculturelle en travail social

Margalit Cohen-Emerique

Preface by Tania Ogay

This updated edition allows students and social workers to strengthen their knowledge of the intercultural approach based on the specific processes of decentering, a discovery from the general framework of the Other and negotiation and mediation. With nearly one hundred annotated real-world situations, this work is a reference for research and training for social action involving migrants.

2015 • 16 x 24 • 480 p. • Professionals • Educational

Quand j'étais petit, on m'a retiré de ma famille
Paroles de témoins

Pierre Cadoux, Claude Domange (dir.)

Twelve former wards recount their childhoods in foster homes and specialized facilities. These personal, authentic texts, sometimes hard to read, provide a point of view which is normally inaccessible to social workers, and will also resonate with the general public and childcare professionals.

2015 • 12 x 17 • 224 p. • General public • Document

Développement du pouvoir d'agir

Claire Jouffray (dir.)

2014 • 16 x 24 • 240 p.
• Professionals • Educational

La méthode des chocs culturels

Margalit Cohen-Emerique, Ariella Rothberg

2015 • 15 x 21 • 192 p.
• Students • Educational

Étudier les ados

Thierry Goguel d'Allondans, Jocelyn Lachance

2014 • 15 x 21 • 180 p.
• Students • Educational

Interventions sociales et faits religieux

Daniel Verba, Faïza Guétamine (dir.)

2014 • 16 x 24 • 256 p.
• Motivated public • Research
